Life raft couple's 'miracle' rescue

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A Northamptonshire couple have described how they were 'preparing to die' when their ship sank in severe storms 900 miles from the coast of Bermuda.

Leonard and Lisa Rorke, from Oundle, were sailing across the Atlantic Ocean in 25ft waves from the Caribbean with their Jack Russell, Dexter, when their yacht began to sink.

The couple were forced to jump into a life raft in complete darkness with a crew member and hang on for their lives.

They had managed to activate a distress call before they leapt off the ship. They were picked up by a tanker was on its way to Mexico. It managed to rush to the area and pluck the couple from their raft.

Mr Rorke, 55, said: "We really did not think we were going to live.

"It is nothing short of a miracle that we are still here and have survived. It was life and death.

"We're very grateful and we are very lucky."

Editor's Letter

There is something very special about two wheels . . .

I love bicycles. They are not just things for getting around on.

If the Giant Alien Battleship of Justice arrives at Earth one day and a tannoy booms out: "Puny, warring, unjust, selfish, greedy, humanity - what have you done that is any good at all?"

I would say: show them bicycles.

It's not the mark of a wise man to second guess divine thinking but a bicycle is surely what God was hoping for when He empowered mankind with all the tricks of science.

It is all about balance. When you bring together the correct quantities of cable, metal, levers, gears, rubber, air and human being you can make that human being double or treble his speed without burning or poisoning anything.

The bicycle is the crowning glory of the Industrial Revolution. Coupes and 4x4s might look pretty fancy now but no-one will remember them when the hover cars arrive.

Petrol driven transport will seem like a weird tangent of the early rocket age and be eradicated from history like Bicycles will still be as elegant and complicated and simple as they are today . . .

Bicycles will still be as elegant and complicated and simple as they are today, however.

Incidentally they are surely our only hope after the Zombie Apocalypse (I'm giving you a lot to plan for this week).

We have bicycle heritage in this county: WG Grose's pivotal role in the development of the pneumatic tyre; the Ministry of Bicycles, the Bomberdrome (check YouTube).

It makes it all the more exciting that next Wednesday dozens of the best female cyclists in the world will be riding the first leg of the first ever Friends Life Women's Tour from Oundle to the front steps of the Guildhall.

It's about 30 miles if you go via the A45 but the race is almost double that distance going via the rolling countryside in the west of the county - including a cut through Althorp.

Read all about it in our special pull out supplement

Whittlebury War Memorial commemorates those killed in the First World War and the Second World War. The memorial is in the form of a Celtic wheel cross.

The Duston War Memorial was unveiled in February 1921. At first it contained the villagers killed in the First World War but another plaque was added to include those who died in the Second World War.

The Spratton War Memorial is located in the village of Spratton at St Andrew's Church. It includes the name of 18 killed in World War One and six from World War Two.

Living wage at the Nationwide

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

Nationwide Building Society which is based at Moulton Park in Northampton has become one of the first companies in the UK to pay all its staff the Living Wage.

This accreditation is a pledge by the Society to pay all employees, from permanent employees to contractors and temporary workers, at least £7.65 an hour, or £8.80 in London - significantly higher than the current minimum wage of £6.31 an hour.

The Living Wage is an hourly rate set independently and updated annually.

The Living Wage is calculated according to the basic cost of living in the UK. Employers choose to pay the Living Wage on a voluntary basis.

The Living Wage enjoys cross party support, with public backing from the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition.

The London Living Wage is currently £8.80 per hour. This figure is set annually by the Greater London Authority and covers all boroughs in Greater London. The UK

Living Wage for outside of London is currently £7.65 per hour. This figure is set annually by the Centre for Research in Social Policy at Loughborough University.

The Living Wage Foundation recognises and celebrates the leadership shown by Living Wage employers across the UK.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

New £50,000 fountain filled with bubbles

BUBBLE TROUBLE: Northampton Borough Council has confirmed this is the second time it has happened in three days

Northampton's new £50,000 fountain in the Market Square was filled with bubbles over the weekend.

CCTV is being examined to identify who tipped something into the water. The fountain was recently reopened after a refurbishment following the closure of the original fountain in 2012, which was turned off after traces of legionella were found in the water.

A Northampton Borough Council spokesman said: "We were alerted on Monday to the bubbles in the fountain, which have been caused by someone adding something to the water deliberately.

"We can confirm this also happened on Saturday. We will be examining CCTV to identify the person who has done this and report them to the police.

"Apart from the costs involved from cleaning up after this sort of anti-social behaviour, we know people enjoy the fountain and it is a shame their enjoyment is spoiled in this way."

MP says Bradlaugh Fields was 'nuked'

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton North MP Michael Ellis has taken the damage caused to Bradlaugh Fields to the top.

The MP is in direct contact with the chief executive at Anglian Water to solve this problem which resulted in two ponds at the park being drained and a large stretch of hedgerow being destroyed.

Mr Ellis said: "I am appalled at what happened as there has been damage to the ancient hedgerow. "I went to see the area and it looks like it has been nuked.

"They (Anglian Water) have carried out work and gone about it like a bull in a china shop."

A spokesperson for Anglian Water said: "Since customers alerted us to a change in the pond levels at Bradlaugh Fields we have investigated to see if there is any link to the damaged water main we repaired recently.

"The repair to our damaged water main was completed to a high standard, and in consultation with the Environment Agency and Reserve Manager.

"Following our investigations we believe we can rule out any impact of this repair on the natural hydrology in the area.

"We are therefore left to conclude that it's possible a long-running, trickling leak from the damaged pipe was adding to natural groundwater to keep the ponds topped up.

"Once we repaired the damaged pipe, we effectively stopped this water filtering underground and rising up in the ponds at Bradlaugh Fields.

"It appears that natural groundwater is not, at this time of year, sufficient to keep the ponds topped up.

A spokesperson for the Wildlife Trust said: "The 'hedge removal' is a non-story - the photo that was tweeted showed an area where blackthorn was removed (blackthorn can be invasive in some areas - and grows back incredibly quickly) - in the background is very verdant green hedgerow - this is the medieval hedgerow - not touched or damaged by Anglian Water."

PLANS: Cllr David Mackintosh and Cllr Brandon Eldred with artist impression of new art gallery

£14m expansion plan for museum

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton Borough Council is selling the historic Egyptian statue of Sekhemka in order to help pay for the £14m expansion of the museum and art gallery.

The council aim to sell the statue at Christie's in London on July 10 and expected it to sell for £4m to £6m.

They have been in contact with Lord Northampton whose family donate the statue to the town more than a hundred years ago.

Roundtable talks have meant Lord Northampton has agreed to the sale and he will receive 45 per cent of the sale price and the borough council will get 55 per cent.

Cabinet Member for Community Engagement, Cllr Brandon Eldred said: "I think personally it is going to be great and beneficial to the town."

"People are going to see artefacts which they have never been able to see before from the collection."

"I hope so I see this as a one off at this time I cannot see anything in our collection which we want to sell in the future to fund any other projects."

"This is going to be a major project, £14m of public money and we are looking to put this back into the museum services."

"I would never say never but I do not think I would if it is Northampton based, built in Northampton and relevant to Northampton people then I would be looking to keep it."

The £14m plans will see an imposing new entrance gallery created to the museum on Guildhall Road, along with new galleries, an education suite and a retail area.

The new development will position Northampton as a leading regional museum focussed on history, art and Northampton's footwear heritage.

There will also be a major refurbishment of Abington Park museum, which will focus on the building's connection with William Shakespeare and on the history of the Northamptonshire Regiments.

The borough council will explore Abington Manor, can be used for other purposes such as conferences or weddings.

It is anticipated work will begin in 2016.

County CPS is slammed

Northamptonshire CPS is ranked 40th out of 42 Crown Prosecution Service.

A report by Her Majesty's Crown Prosecution Service Inspectorate (HMCPPI) has slammed the former

CPS unit of Northamptonshire after it found too many cases did not result in convictions. Inspectors looked into "unsuccessful outcomes" in Magistrates' courts in the county.

Dog owner is fined £75

A runaway dog caused havoc at Stanwick Lakes as well as stress and a fine for its owner when it was walked off the lead at the park.

The dog took off, having spotted a Muntjack deer. The owner then spent an hour searching alone, a further hour and half of looking with a park ranger and the owner was issued with a £75 fine for breaching the dogs on leads policy.

Litterpicker

Jackie Newbury from Northampton Borough Council's Street Cleaning Team must have her litter-picking gripper.

Jackie uses it every day as she picks up the litter from the streets throughout the town centre.

She has added a metal piece on the tip of the litter-picker which has made it stronger and stops it from breaking.

Road and

Wellingborough is now looking very shabby

Time again to write to you again on the state of our town centre. The Weandel Walk is soon upon us now and what a disgrace the town is.

The lovely tree outside Mc Donalds is a joke, sponsored by O2, planted but never maintained

The Parks Department have neglected the upkeep of our open spaces, flower beds in parks and main roads. The weeds have taken over the bed on Finedon Eastfield Road.

The walk way from Morrison's through Abbott and Monks Way then over the small park to Croyland Road. Why have the council removed the rubbish bins? People now days will not take their rubbish home like the older generation folk used to. I am fed up with picking up cans, plastic bottles and even glass ones and putting them in my green recycling bin.

The car park area that has a walk way where the willow trees in the dip is so overgrown its embarrassing to pass as the weeds are so high. What will the walkers from various country's from all over the world think of us in Wellingborough. The trouble is there is no experts employed by the council any more and no Parks and Cemetery's Superintendent to see that open spaces are cared for like they used to. Our town looked very nice for visitors and locals but now it is very shabby. The chewing gum and cigarettes butts are awful, why does the shops not sweep them up each day, to help keep the town looking a bit neater. After all, the takeaways and shops want customers but they should help to clear up the mess that uncaring, thoughtless people who drop rubbish on the pavements etc. It is just disgraceful isn't it. We should all take pride in our town now before it deteriorates even more, parents and even schools try I know but young people should be taught at an early age then it is upheld all through ones life, the moral of this is to take your rubbish home if there is no bin to put it in.

Carol Bench,

State of public toilets in Market Walk

I don't know if anyone has wrote to the Herald and Post about the state of the toilets in Market Walk.

I have emailed them twice about the state of the ladies and gents toilets. The last email I sent them was about the gents urinals. I was out with my husband when he needed to answer the call of nature. He visited the said toilets only to come out again due to all the urinals smashed and the pipes broken. It isn't a cleaner's problem it is the owners of Market Walk that needs to do something. If the borough council are trying to get more people to come into the town centre by giving free parking etc surely have working toilets would be a bonus?

H Stride,
By email

We don't want 'quick-fixes' or 're-makes'

When the Millenium Dome was built, at great cost, for the year 2000, I thought that a longer lasting, life-changing investment would have been far more commemorative...maybe funding for Millenium Hospices or nurses.

Having never spoken out publicly then, I feel compelled to make a comparison between the costly and unfruitful Abington Street road alterations and the pulling out of funding for essential services such as the on-going work in Refuges.

What is going on? Surely encouraging and saving lives is more important to the majority of us council tax payers. Using public money requires a wise stewardship, making a long term investment rather than a 'quick fix' or a 're-make' with dubious projected results.

It would be to Northampton County Council's credit to change their plans, listen to their voters and invest in some life-changing decisions.

Boy heartbroken following theft

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

A nine-year-old boy from Irthlingborough has been left heart broken after thieves stole his Zip Lightning Go-Kart.

The theft has stopped Finley Isaac racing now just this weekend but probably forever.

His Go-Kart was stolen when his dad's 21ft caravan costing £9,000 was stolen from the driveway of a house in Diamond Drive, Irthlingborough on Tuesday.

The cream Bailey Pageant 6 Bretagne caravan was parked on the driveway at 8.15am but had been taken by the time the owner returned home at 6pm.

The offenders removed a hitch lock and towed the caravan away.

Inside was a blue, yellow and silver Zip Lightning Go-Kart, with a Mycron computer on the steering wheel and the number 17 on the back and both sides, as well as 'All Stars Racing Team' written on the sides.

Also in the caravan was a

ON STOP: Nine-year-old Finley Isaac in his Go-Kart children's racing helmet made by Impact which is covered in the Union Jack flag.

Finley's dad, Nick said: "He said his heart is broken and he cannot believe what has happened."

"He would like to ask the thieves 'Are you happy you have taken my Go-Kart?'"

"Racing drivers like Jason Plato have been retweeting our appeals for help."

"We can't replace the Kart which cost £2,000 as we do not have the money and the caravan was not insured.

"When we saw it was missing and just thought oh my god and were left with a sense of disbelief."

Police would like to speak to anyone who saw the caravan being stolen from Diamond Close yesterday or offered it or the go-kart for sale.

Anyone with information should call police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

RIGHT MOVES: Cartel impressed the audience with their dance act

Dance troupe wows on BGT

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A dance troupe from Northamptonshire are through to the next round of Britain's Got Talent after an impressive performance on the ITV1 show on Saturday night.

Cartel dance crew, whose members are Jamie, 27, Ed, 18, Steven, 19, Jordan, 18 and Daniel, 16, performed a hip-hop routine to a medley of songs.

By the end of their audition, they had won over the audience and most of the judges, except for Simon Cowell.

Living up to his Mr Nasty reputation, Cowell told Jamie that he should not be in the group.

He said: "Jamie, I'm not being rude but you shouldn't be in the group. I'm sorry but you stuck out like a sore thumb."

"It's like putting David Walliams in One Direction it just wouldn't work."

"Seriously Jamie, I really like the four, I just don't like the group with you in it."

Simon went on to declare: "I'm going to say with you (Jamie) in it,

no. Without you yes."

However, Cartel's impressive hip-hop routine still won over the other three judges, who disagreed with Simon.

They urged Jamie to stick with the other boys and gave three yeses, meaning they are through to the next stage.

David Walliams joked: "By your logic Simon, on this panel there's three young attractive people on it and you're here."

Walliams added: "We should judge them on their talent."

Amanda Holden said: "Oh my God, I thought you were brilliant."

Jordan is currently a dance student at Northampton College and Steven, Cartel's choreographer, is a former student there who is now teaching Street Dance at the Booth Lane site.

During Cartel's performance, Northampton College tweeted: "WOW, @CartelDance are on #BGT right now! #soproud of our dance student and former dance student @OfficialJordyG @OfficialSteveYT."

Wellingborough ready for Waendel

Final preparations are being made in Wellingborough ahead of the International Waendel Walk. More than 5,000 people are expected to take part in the prestigious event, which attracts walkers from as far away as Japan, America and China.

Route maps are being printed, signs and flags are ready to go up, and road closures have been agreed, as the final flurry of organisation takes place before the event kicks off in just over a week's time.

The Waendel Walk, kicks off this year on the evening of Friday, May 9, with the two friendship walks of 5km and 10km. They are followed by a weekend of different routes throughout the borough ranging from 5km up to a marathon-distance 42km.

More information about the Waendel Walk, including details of route information and start times, entertainment and tips for keeping safe, is available on Wellingborough Council's website www.wellingborough.gov.uk/waendel

Growing, growing

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Big Allotment Challenge is still going on for one couple despite leaving the BBC show.

Edd Curbishley and Harashani Curbishley-Brown, from Islip, have got their own allotment as a result of appearing on the programme.

Last Tuesday, they were voted off the competition after appearing on only two episodes.

Speaking to the Northants Herald & Post they said as an experience it was one they both enjoyed and wished they were still on the programme.

They said: "We really enjoyed creating the allotment and planning what we were going to grow."

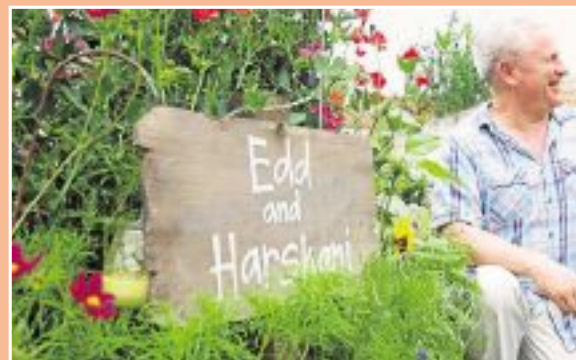

"We were disappointed at leaving the show as we did not think we would go."

"Leaving the show was hard but the worst part was leaving behind what we had been growing."

"On the final day we were allowed to go back and take all our things."

"It was sad to see it all overgrown."

"We enjoyed being with the other contestants as we would meet them every weekend for 16 weeks when we went to the allotment.

"It was interesting to see ourselves on tv."

"It was a completely different slant as you do not see the actual filming until it is broadcast."

"Doing the challenges was a different kettle of fish."

"Normally to make a jam or a chutney you have as long as you want but on the show you had a set time and were rushed."

"It did bring a whole new dynamic to it all."

Another element was each week they had to fill out a work sheet.

This was to inform the BBC what they were planning to do so they could be filmed doing these different tasks.

Edd said: "They wanted to know when we were planting the carrots and came over to film us doing this."

They said after a while they got used to it and comfortable with every step they took being filmed.

Like many shows a lot of what was filmed was cut and never used but they enjoyed watching what did make it to the small screen.

Looking back on their brief appearance they did say they had learnt a lot about the different types of flow-

They had enjoyed being on the first programme of this kind as it was original and different.

They said a second series had been commissioned by the BBC and would be filmed this summer.

Edd said: "We now have an allotment which is great. "We love going up there are doing some work."

"We enjoy talking to people and picking up tips of what we should do or finding out what the soil is like for various crops and how to stop the birds eating the seeds."

Dunhams fail in final US extradition battle

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A Northampton couple fighting extradition to the USA over an alleged work expenses fraud have lost their final battle to stop it going ahead.

Paul and Sandra Dunham appealed last week to The European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) in their last hope of avoiding extradition.

The ECHR has now said it will not get involved in their case.

The married couple, in their late 50s, will now be extradited to the USA within 28 days to face charges in Maryland, with the possibility of months behind bars waiting for trial and the prospect of years in prison if found guilty.

Mr Dunham said: "Sandra and I are simply devastated. In fact we're disgusted. The High Court recently ruled that an alleged terrorist will not be extradited to America without specific assurances as to his medical treatment. Yet Sandra and I, both honest, hardworking British taxpayers all our lives, now suffering from acute mental health problems, are being parcelled off without a thought for our welfare.

"We are heartbroken at being forced to leave behind my aged father, our son, our beloved five grandchildren and our cherished two dogs. We are innocent of any wrongdoing but no British court will hear our evidence.

"We're both approaching 60 and our future is separation from each other, locked up in a truly grim former Supermax prison, for an undisclosed period of pre-trial detention.

"We don't have money to secure bail. This is before any court has examined our defence. How did Britain become so unjust?"

Crime fighters get unique justice unit

LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Institute for Public Safety, Crime and Justice has been launched at the University of Northampton.

Based at its Park Campus, the IPSCJ is a new joint venture between the office of the Northamptonshire Police and Crime Commissioner for and the University of Northampton.

The institute aims to bring together cutting-edge academic research and evidence with practice training and development across agencies. The launch on Tuesday included addresses from:

■ Rt Hon Damian Green, Minister for Policing, Criminal Justice and Victims

■ Lord Wasserman, President for the IPSCJ

■ Adam Simmonds, Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) for Northamptonshire

Mr Green said: "I think it is a good idea and a big step forward."

"It is a way of improving policing in this country and having ideas gathered in one place."

CRIME CENTRE: PCC Adam Simmonds and Minister Damian Green

"One of the things I hope will happen is these good ideas will be realised in helping to reduce the number of burglaries."

"This will help to bring together and spread best practice."

"The institute will be a help for the whole world in spreading and launching ideas."

"It will be an important part of policing."

PCC Mr Simmonds said he was delighted this centre had been launched in the county. He added: "This is immense and epic."

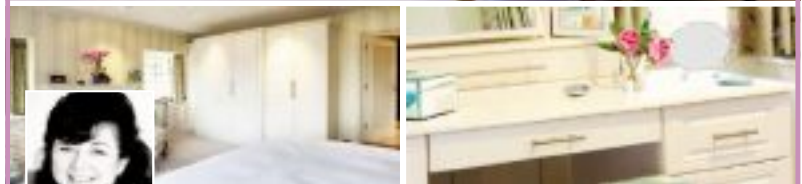

"This is the first of its kind in the country and of national significance."

"It is the first time where we will have all academic work being done on policing."

"This is a significant moment."

It sounds like I'm talking in riddles but it's really very simple. Sit down with your Herald and Post property supplement and see what's out there.

You'll do a lot of research whether you are buying or selling so make sure you start with the newspaper with the biggest circulation in the county. And in these pages you'll find not just an amazing array of expertise in the businesses that advertise here but some of the nicest people you could hope to meet along the way. Why shouldn't they be? A new home is a big dream for some, a smaller dream for others but when the keys are handed over its always a dream come true. Good luck with your search, you're starting in the right place...

Warm regards,
Alan Doyle

International spotlight falls on the county

LAUNCH: The Friends Life Women's Tour 2014 launch in Northampton

The day we have been waiting for is almost here as on May 7th, Northamptonshire will host stage one of the inaugural Women's Tour.

I'm so proud that our wonderful county has been chosen as the location for this hugely inspiring and significant event which will bring women's cycling to the UK in the country's first-ever international stage-race.

The Women's Tour has been created by the SweetSpot Group which has been working with us at Northamptonshire County Council to bring the event to the county, in partnership with the University of Northampton. I would also like to take this opportunity to say thank you to the many organisations that have been involved in ensuring this event will be a success, including Northamptonshire Sport, MGWSP, Northampton Borough Council, Oundle Town Council, East Northamptonshire Council, Carlsberg, the Northamptonshire Enterprise Partnership and the Northampton Leisure Trust.

For the past six months we have been meeting regularly to plan every aspect of the event. The county will be under an international spotlight as cycling fans from all over the world arrive to watch the Grand Depart in Oundle or the stage one finish in Northampton, plus thousands of people will also be tuning into the daily ITV4 coverage. This means it's a great chance to showcase our beautiful county and it's essential that everything runs smoothly.

Although our main focus is on stage one, on the following day (Thursday 8th May) the second stage will also pass through parts of Northamptonshire, from Welford to Wollaston. As a result, there are lots of chances for everyone to see the Women's Tour and I hope that as many people as possible line the streets as they race through the county.

As well as the race itself, there is lots taking place in Oundle and Northampton to celebrate The Women's Tour and lots of opportunities for everyone to have a go at different sports and activities. The Women's Tour also marks the start of our Summer of Cycling which will bring further opportunities for everyone to get more active and healthy. For more information you can visit Northamptonshire Sport's website www.northamptonshiresport.org

I hope everyone enjoys The Women's Tour on Wednesday 7th May.

Cycling is coming home for our Hannah

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

Nicholas.Bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

As far as county cycling star Hannah Barnes is concerned, 'Cycling is coming home'.

Northamptonshire is counting down the days until the opening stage of Britain's first ever professional women's stage race The Women's Tour, which starts in Oundle on May 7.

Barnes, a young British road and track cyclist, will compete in The Women's Tour in May which will take place over five stages between Wednesday, May 7, and Sunday, May 11, with the first stage finishing in Northampton town centre.

When the Towcester girl first heard the news it was starting in the county and that she would soon be cycling on home soil, she took to Twitter to say: "Just read the 1st stage of @thewomentour is starting in my home county. Super exciting and hopefully the girls can put on a good show."

The 20-year-old, who turns 21 on 4 May, predicts the event will be a big positive for the county.

"This event is going to be huge for Northamptonshire," Hannah told the Northants Herald and Post.

"I'm so excited and I can't wait to come back.

"Of course I'm nervous as there will be top cyclists there, but with it being in my home county it's going to be pretty cool.

LOCAL HERO: Hannah Barnes is from Towcester and is competing in the Women's Tour for the United Healthcare team

"There will be a lot of people coming over to watch, so I'm really looking forward to it and it's really nice to be able to go home as I haven't been back for three months."

Hannah, whose cycling career was sparked when she was 10-years-old by her parents who both raced in mountain bike events, has been living in America this year with her current team UnitedHealthcare.

At the start of her career she joined Milton Keynes' Team Keyne and began to compete in national events.

One of those was a national series event in Sunderland, which Hannah still counts as her most cherished prize.

At 13-years-old she was spotted by the British Cycling Talent Team and moved to join the more track-based Palmer Park Velo in Reading.

At under-14 level, Barnes then won the omnium title at the national championships - a trophy which was won in the previous year by Laura Trott, who went on to take gold in the event at London 2012.

Barnes continued to win trophies at under-16 as well as the junior British National Time Trial Championships. She then went on to win the British National Circuit Race Championships at senior level in 2010 and 2011. She won the event again in 2013.

Barnes, a former pupil at Sponne School in Towcester, has been riding for professional teams across the world since 2008, including Node 4 - Giordana Racing, Motorpoint, Team Ibis and MG Maxifuel.

"I said last weeks to all my team mates that this is like the coolest job in the world. I never thought that I'd one day be living in America, it's amazing," Hannah added.

"I've enjoyed every moment, my career has taken me to some very weird and wonderful places I never thought I would go to.

"At the women's tour I will be racing the roads I have trained on for the last 10 years, so it's really great.

"I know my family can't wait and all my friends are going to go crazy - it's going to be so much fun.

When asked if she has any hopes to go for the next Olympics, Hannah said: "Of course, I wouldn't do this if I didn't have ambitions and goals and the Olympics is definitely one of them.

"But at the moment I'm just working hard for the next race and if it happens it happens."

Asked what this event will mean to women's cycling and to Northamptonshire, she said: "It is going to mean a lot to the cycling world, the buzz that it's getting already from all the public on social media is huge and everyone just can't wait for it.

"This is going to put the county on the map and I know everyone will love the roads as I love them."

You can find out more about Hannah and the world of women's cycling at the Women On Wheels exhibition which runs until June at Northampton Museum.

ONE TO WATCH: Lizzie Armitstead

World Cup leader Lizzie raring to go for the inaugural tour

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
Nicholas.Bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Britain's Lizzie Armitstead is now looking forward to The Women's Tour in Britain after retaining her lead in the World Cup by finishing second in the women's Flech Wallone race in Belgium.

Armitstead, who was beaten by France's Pauline Ferrand-Prevot, with Elisa Longo Borghini of Italy crossing the line in third place, has continued her excellent early season form ahead of an eagerly anticipated showdown next month with Marianne Vos - the Dutchwoman who beat Armitstead to gold in the Olympic road race in London - at the inaugural Women's Tour, a five-day stage race on British roads.

At the start of this season the height Lizzie Armitstead's Spring ambitions was to get back into the groove after a testing, injury plagued, 2013 when she struggled to build in any fitness, form and confidence.

But here we are at the end of April and after four quick fire

World Cup races - one first and three second places - Armitstead is leading the UCI World Cup rankings by 160 points.

Armitstead said in an interview with TheTour.co.uk that the World Cup isn't really a season's goal for her.

The Olympic Silver medal winner will not be travelling to China either after the inaugural Friends Life Women's Tour for the next round at Chongming Island nor indeed will she be at Round Six, the Sparkassen Giro in Bochum, which clashes with the Commonwealth Games.

She said: "It's funny how it goes but the World Cup itself wasn't really a target at all, although we had our eyes on one of two of the races in particular, and yet it has gone very well so far.

"The Commonwealth Games and the World Championships are strong personal goals this season the Women's Tour and the La Course one day race on the last day of the Tour de France, which finishes on the Champs Elysees, are going to be very big and high profile events for my team Boels Dolmans.

"The fact it that 2012 was a huge year for me, mentally and physically, and I probably paid the price a bit in 2013 when there was a lot of accumulated fatigue and I picked up a few injury niggles. There was no panic though I knew what was happening so come the winter I took the chance to relax and really rest first before starting to quietly work away through the winter.

"I started the season very fresh but what I probably couldn't anticipate so much was that I would be in such good form.

"There are no plans yet to change my programme so I will race an abbreviated World Cup schedule and if that is enough to win the title, all well and good.

"I certainly won't be going to China, which starts just a couple of days after the Women's Tour which became a big priority for me as soon as it was announced and then I will definitely miss another round when the Commonwealth Games are on.

The Road race in Glasgow is a big target although racing in La Course will rule out any track racing

"I've been pretty vocal in my support for women's cycling being treated properly and on an equal footing with the men so obviously am very excited about the Women's Tour.

"I am totally behind what the organisers are doing and the ethics behind the race if you like but as we get closer, being a racer, my focus is simply on the race itself and how we can perform best as a team.

"Being a new event we have no real prior knowledge of the finishes and expected conditions - I would imagine there could be a couple of windy days - so we will be looking at the race manual and scrambling to get all the information I can in the next few days. What we do know is that we have five reasonably short stages and a very competitive field with most of the top teams and racers present so I am expecting some really hectic finishes."

Summer of cycling

Carnivals and fairs will celebrate cycling

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

Nicholas.Bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northamptonshire is one week away from a brand new international race for the world's best women cyclists that will take place in the East of England over 5 days – the inaugural Women's Tour.

The 2012 Summer Olympics in London were the first at which men and women competed in the same number of events in all cycling disciplines, including track cycling.

Now we are just days away from The Women's Tour, which will take place over five stages away from Wednesday, May 7, and Sunday, May 11, with the opening 'Grand Depart' stage setting off from Oundle finishing in Northampton town centre.

The next stage begins in Leicestershire, which will then lead onto Bedfordshire, Essex and Hertfordshire, with the final stage finishing in Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk.

The Women's Tour is being launched by SweetSpot Ltd., the group who revived the Tour of Britain in 2004 after a five-year absence from Britain's sporting calendar.

The Tour of Britain is a cornerstone of the sporting year and the UK's main cycling event, and the anticipation building across the country for the Women's Tour looks set to secure the women's event the same success.

WHEELS MEET AGAIN: Cycling will continue to be centrestage at events like Northampton Carnival

For further information on the routes and the teams competing, the official website is: www.womenstour.co.uk

On the day of the first stage, Northamptonshire Highways will be hosting an interactive cycling road show, with activities for schoolchildren and the public, which are being held from 11am-4pm in Northampton market square to attract visitors to the finish line area.

The opening stage of the Women's Tour is not the only celebration of cycling that is taking place in the county, as there are more events which will take place over the summer months.

Visitors to the Summer of Cycling events will be welcomed to witness the fun, power and potential of cycling, comprising of a vast array of interactive bicycle themed activities, including bicycle security marking, bicycle polo sessions, Dr Bike bicycle maintenance workshops, pedal-powered smoothie-making and pedal-powered scalextric car racing.

Visitors will also have the opportunity to ride on the unique custom-made bicycles from the Northamptonshire Highways' collection of 'crazy bikes', ranging from a double-height tall bike to arm-cycled tricycles and a mini Penny-farthing.

Summer of Cycling 2014 – Events Calendar

thousands of spectators an impressive display of unique bicycles on parade, as well as showing off the brand new bicycles from the Cycle CoNNect hire scheme.

Saturday 28 June – KEEP on 2 Wheels Cycling Festival @ The Racecourse, Northampton

The 'KEEP on 2 Wheels' cycling festival on Saturday 28th June is a partnership event hosted by Northamptonshire Highways and Sustrans. NOT ALL ESTATE AGENTS ARE THE SAME!

Millers have been working in this way since being established in 1989 and year by year the service just gets better as our experience continues to grow. We pride ourselves not only on our ability to sell properties at the best price for the customer, but also on our level of customer care.

BUT DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD

CUSTOMER REVIEWS*

Bittern Street
Northampton
NN49DL

Dear Mr Miller,

I just wanted to drop you a quick email to say how impressed I was with the service provided by Millers to my husband and I during the sale of our house in West Hunsbury towards the end of last year.

Although we'd obviously bought the property four years ago, it was the first time that we were faced with selling a property. Plus the fact that it was a shared ownership property made it a rather daunting prospect. We began by getting a few quotes from other agents in Northampton. Not only were some of them more expensive but they also didn't initially provide the customer service that we were after.

The fact that Millers had already sold properties down our road was a big bonus for us - showing that those SOLD signs are good for advertising!

Not only that, Carl provided a first class service from the start of the process when he visited our home and talked us through the process. We felt we could be open and honest with him and he talked us through everything we needed to know.

So when Carl sold our home on the first ten minute viewing, we were amazed!

Sadly, we ended up losing the initial buyer several weeks later which was obviously a worry to us having already paid upfront fees to buy our next house.

Carl reassured us that he would do everything he could do find us another buyer. The house went back on the market that night and 48 hours later it was sold again.

Carl went through a lot of stress and worked so hard to make sure he secured another buyer for us and kept us in the loop every step of the way.

Even when the solicitors went quiet, Carl continued to keep us informed about everything that was happening which was a huge relief during a very stressful time in the run up to completion.

If I'm being completely honest I found the selling and buying of a property pretty stressful whilst trying to hold down a busy job and in the run up to Christmas, but Carl made it that bit less stressful which is what you need from an estate agent.

So thank you to Carl and everyone at Millers for doing a fantastic job. I will recommend the company to anyone that asks and I hope you go on to please many more buyers across Northampton.

Kind regards,
AliceB

WHAT'S ON ROUND-UPDelivering the chance to watch Postman Pat

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Northants Herald & Post has teamed up with Classic Media and Premier Stage Productions to give two lucky readers the chance to win a family ticket (two adults/two children) for the 1pm performance of Postman Pat Live! It's Showtime at the Kettering Lighthouse on May 18.

Starring alongside Postman Pat will be favourites Ted Glen, Mrs Goggins, Ajay, Amy and of course Pat's trusted sidekick Jess, the black and white cat.

There is plenty of audience participation and new songs, offering lots of fun and excitement for the whole family.

It's the day of the talent show and there is much excitement in Greendale.

All the invitations have been delivered and it's now up to the villagers to come up with something that will get the vote of approval from Sebastian Sly, the famous judge coming to cast his eye over proceedings.

Ted Glen has the idea to get the karaoke machine dusted off and fixed up; but when Amy suggests solar panels would be more eco-friendly, poor Ted's confusion begins.

Postman Pat sets off on a mission to deliver the equipment needed but a few mishaps along the way put the whole talent show in jeopardy.

Who will enter the show? What act will they perform? Will the judge be impressed? Will anyone become an overnight star?

All these questions and more will be answered in the show.

To enter the competition follow us on Twitter; @NorthamptonUK

We will tweet the question tomorrow and all correct answers will go into a hat with the winners drawn at random.

Frank is your man

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Frank Skinner brings his brand new show Man In A Suit to Royal & Derngate for two nights on May 13 and 14 at 7.30pm.

The Brummie funnyman promises a new, mature approach for his first new stand-up show in six years.

Diehard fans will be delighted his mischievous, probing wit is sharper than ever and in fact, there turns out to be a fair helping of smut scattered in among the haikus.

Tickets, priced at £28.50, can be booked by calling the box office on 01604 624811 or visiting www.royalandderngate.co.uk

The show is for ages 16 and above.

Audition for a Shakespearian comedy

The Masque Theatre is holding open auditions for its next production of William Shakespeare's Much A Do About Nothing.

They will be held on Friday, May 2 at 7.30pm in the Church Rooms of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Sheep Street, Northampton.

People are urged to try out for a role in Shakespeare's classic comedy about two high spirited singletons; seemingly determined not to marry but tricked into believing that their witty repartee and sharp tongued banter merely serves as a mask for their true feelings towards each other.

There are a variety of roles available for both male and female characters of different age groups. If you are interested in taking part, visit www.masquetheatre.co.uk for more information.

DON'T MISS THIS

FRIDAY

Northampton Saints are travelling to the Recreation Ground tonight for their Aviva Premiership clash against Bath.
The game kicks off at 7.45pm.

SATURDAY

The Cobblers are at home today for the last game of the season in a League Two clash versus Oxford United.
Kick-off is at 3pm.

Have a tour backstage at Northampton's Royal & Derngate theatre.

Called 'Behind the Curtain', the theatre is offering exciting backstage tours (£13) for groups, schools and individuals. You will be able to explore the colourful history of the theatre and find out how their Made In Northampton productions are created. If you would like to book a tour, call the box office on 01604 624811 or go online at <http://www.royalandderngate.co.uk/>

SUNDAY

Bands are coming back to Abington Park.

Today marks the return of the popular 'Bands in the Park' series in the Northampton park. Every Sunday, starting today, from 2pm to 5pm, Abington Park will play host to a packed programme of live music throughout the summer. This year's Bands in the Park summer season has something for everyone. Organised by Northampton Borough Council the series includes traditional brass and wind instrument bands.

Susan Boyle's shot to fame is truly inspirational.

It's almost five years since her sensational Britain's Got Talent debut, a moment which lives in the memory of many.

In just a matter of minutes, a shy, timid Scottish woman opened the eyes of an entire nation with her touching rendition of 'I Dreamed a Dream' from Les Miserables.

Now, Susan is living that dream. Two weeks ago, she came to Northampton's Royal & Derngate theatre for the last show of her first solo tour.

Shaped around SuBo's voice, song choices, humour and stage presence, the show saw her sing a list of standout numbers from her albums such as 'Somewhere Over the Rainbow', 'Winner Takes It All' and 'Wild Horses'.

Almost every song received a standing ovation, which was thoroughly deserved as she was truly outstanding.

She might have come second in the 2009 final of BGT, but as we all know, the winner doesn't always take it all.

The new Kia cee'd GT

Turn the page for featured cars

COVERCAR

Inside the new Kia cee'd GT Test drive

- £20,500 - £23,000
- CO2 emissions: 171g/km
- 0-62mph 7.4s
- Top Speed 143mph
- 38.2mpg (combined)

It's hard to think of a much more inoffensive car than a Kia cee'd, so in order to inject a shot of charisma, Kia has developed the warmed-over GT version.

Kia has priced and positioned this car carefully and with some skill. As a consequence, identifying direct rivals isn't easy. You either settle for something less powerful and less overtly sporting or you pay a lot more for a rival that's less well-equipped but which is quicker.

That sweet spot of value, pace and specification is one that Kia could well make its own.

No, this car isn't perfect. It ought to be a bit quicker and it should be a lot more economical, but there's so much that's right about this package that it's possible to overlook those shortcomings.

Kia's star has been on the rise for some time now. The cee'd GT isn't about to change that.

Secure Care Officers

Rainsbrook Secure Training Centre | Rugby

Starting salary: £20,000 pa rising to £20,660 pa following successful probation
Average 40 hours per week (early and late shifts over a 7 day rolling shift pattern)

Amy has just arrived at the Secure Training Centre (STC) after being sentenced to a period of detention by the Youth Courts. With a history of difficult behaviour, she's not the easiest young person to deal with at the best of times, let alone at the start of a custodial sentence. So is she frustrated? Or is she starting to realise the consequences of her actions and is fearful of the situation she now faces? The ability to assess situations quickly and respond in a calm and professional manner is just one of the skills you'll need as a Secure Care Officer.

At Rainsbrook STC, we look after young people aged 12 to 17 years old who have been remanded or sentenced to periods of detention. During their time with us, they attend school lessons at our on-site education facility as well as taking part in offending behaviour programmes designed to help them address the actions and attitudes that led them into custody.

As a member of our team of Secure Care Officers, you'll be involved in every aspect of the daily life of the young people at the centre, maintaining a safe and secure environment at all times. Working directly with the young people, you'll motivate them to improve social and domestic skills as well as supporting them in the classroom, delivering offending behaviour programmes and supervising leisure activities. This is a diverse role, but not easy as the young people can be unpredictable and confrontational at times.

You will be dealing with some of the most difficult young people in the country, so you'll need to be confident, assertive and resilient with plenty of life experience, common sense and a firm but fair approach. Helping to build self esteem, you'll actively engage with the young people and inspire them to make a fresh start. If you've got the qualities and skills and that we're looking for, you could train for a career that's both challenging and rewarding.

Apply online now at: www.careers.g4s.com

Closing date: Friday 16th May 2014.

Please note that these vacancies are subject to a 10 year checkable history and the strict vetting standards set by G4S and the Secretary of State for the Home Office and are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.

Tanvir the third overseas player to slip through Northants' hands

BY MATT WRIGHT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Losing by 60 runs to Lancashire in their latest County Championship fixture only added to the frustrations of head coach David Ripley after Northamptonshire missed out on a third overseas signing.

After deals for Australian bowler Jackson Bird and South African all-rounder Rory Kleinveldt fell through because of injuries, Northants had agreed a deal to take on Pakistan's all rounder Sohail Tanvir.

However, their hopes have been dashed yet again because the 29-year-old has been called into a 36-man training camp by the Pakistan Cricket Board, which has taken the county by surprise.

Ripley said: "It was a body blow to lose him because we've had three players with contracts signed and three haven't arrived.

"That's quite unusual to get that far down the road and then to lose them so we're very disappointed with how that went.

"This training camp just appeared and 36 people seems a very high number to me but it's out of our hands.

"It would have been nice to have known about that so it's just back to the drawing board."

Northants were defeated for the second week running, but in different circumstances to their innings loss at Yorkshire as they fell short against Lancashire in chasing a victory target of 240.

A superb 87 off 192 balls from James Middlebrook while wickets tumbled around him looked to be pushing them towards the finishing line on the final day. But his dismissal saw the Wantage Road outfit's hopes disappear with him as Lancashire, inspired by 10 wickets in the match from England paceman James Anderson, eventually prevailed.

All this after they had been bowled out by their hosts for just 119 on the first day of what turned out to be a thrilling game.

On the result, Ripley said: "It was a tight game and at the moment we feel as though we're competing well and showing good effort and commitment.

"It's just that when we get a chance to get a foothold in the game, it's slipping past us.

"We had a couple of opportunities in this game when they were five down and even on the final morning we had two lads who had battled very hard.

"We needed less than 100 at that point and I thought we'd get there but we're just not grabbing those key moments."

Northants suffered yet another blow as Olly Stone was added to an already lengthy injury list as he became the latest player to suffer a broken finger and will be out for several weeks.

However, Ripley hopes this particular crisis will ease in the weeks ahead, saying: "David Sales will hopefully be coming up to Durham MCCU next week for a hit.

"We're hopeful in the next couple of weeks to get David Willey somewhere near bowling and Rob Keogh could be back next week.

"James Kettleborough has been playing in the second team along with Graeme White so hopefully we'll be getting a few more bodies to select from."

Hard graft helps Saints to second final of the year

SAINTS

BY DAN PALMER

Sam Dickinson said that Saints' hard work had paid off with the club now having a second cup final of the season to look forward to.

Northampton saw off Harlequins 18-10 in Friday night's Amlin Challenge Cup semi final at Franklin's Gardens to book a showpiece date with Bath at the Cardiff Arms Park on May 23.

Their place in the final of Europe's second most prestigious competition follows the run to the LV= Cup final this season, which Saints lost to Exeter Chiefs in March and also comes after a recovery from a blip in league form.

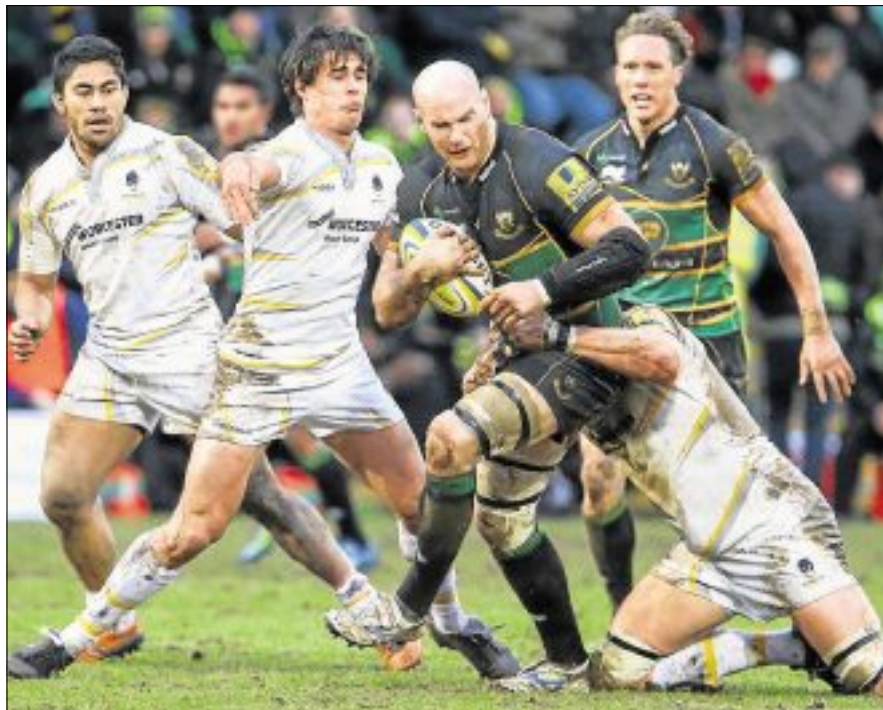

Saints had lost three straight games in the Premiership before they halted that run by beating London Irish on April 20, but the team now look to have cleared that hurdle after some improved performances – especially against a fine Quins side who went into Friday's game in great form.

"We had that blip in the Premiership and we've tried to concentrate on ourselves, our processes and how we're going to fix those things," said 29-year-old back row Dickinson.

"It's paid dividends and we've come out on top. It is brilliant to be in another final as it's why we play the game."

Saints face a dress rehearsal with Bath, who beat Wasps 28-14 at Adams Park in their semi-final, in a Premiership clash in Somerset tomorrow evening.

Northampton, in second, are seven points ahead of their third place opponents with two games to play, meaning that a victory would secure a top two finish in the standings and a home semi-final in the Premiership play-offs.

HARD GRAFT: Sam Dickinson.

Picture: Andy Kearns

A defeat, however, would take the battle for home advantage to the final match against Wasps at the Gardens, so there is plenty riding on tomorrow's trip.

It means that for now, thoughts of the Amlin final are firmly on the back burner.

"We won't be getting ahead of ourselves," added Dickinson.

This thought was shared by director of rugby Jim Mallinder.

He said: "What we will do is put it to bed now for a few weeks.

"Friday is all important, we win and we're guaranteed a home semi which is what we want.

"I know we have two opportunities but we're not looking at Wasps."

Participation in the Premiership play-offs mean Saints remain on course to reach three finals and they will be desperate for some silverware after past disappointments – including the LV= defeat to the Chiefs this year and the Premiership loss to Leicester last season.

"It's where the club wants to be and it's where the players want to be," said Mallinder. "You don't want weeks off during the season."

"You don't get many opportunities in your playing or coaching career."

Containing Care key to sealing final spot

SAINTS

Northampton Saints director of rugby Jim Mallinder admitted nullifying the threat of Danny Care was the key to the Saints overcoming Harlequins yet again this season to book a place in the Amlin Challenge Cup final.

Scrum-half Care, who shone for England during this year's Six Nations, could do little to penetrate Northampton as tries from Tom Collins and Kahn Fotuali'i either side of half-time sent them on their way to Cardiff.

Former England international Nick Easter did his best to get Quins back into the game but they couldn't add to his second-half try as they lost to Saints for the third time from three matches this season.

Stephen Myler also outscored Ben Botica eight points to five with the boot and Northampton boss Mallinder insisted not allowing Quins – and Care in particular – to play was a vital ingredient in the win.

"It was a hard-fought win and it was always going to be tough. Quins are a good side and they value the competition," he said.

"They wanted to win it and you see from the team they put out that they were going to be competitive.

"We had to work hard for it. We were brilliant defensively for 80 minutes, stopped a lot of their threats, Danny Care in particular. We took our opportunities in attack and our half-backs were very, very good at giving us field position and putting us in the right places."

And, while focusing on Care for Quins, Mallinder insisted Northampton owed a debt of gratitude to their wing pairing of Collins, who replaced George North in the first half, and Jamie Elliott.

"Tom Collins has been great for us all season. He's played in Europe and in the league for us and it was a great performance," he added.

"Jamie Elliott also needs a mention. They're both young, English wingers and they're local as well. It's pleasing."

Nothing taken for granted ahead of boss' final battle

BY DAN PALMER
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Chris Wilder is taking nothing for granted despite the Cobblers being in a box seat for Football League survival going into the last game of the season.

The 3-0 victory over Dagenham & Redbridge last weekend lifted Northampton out of the relegation zone at the expense of Wycombe Wanderers – who were beaten 2-1 at home by fellow strugglers Bristol Rovers who also remain in trouble.

A point for the Cobblers against Oxford at Sixfields will be enough to ensure League Two safety and Northampton will survive regardless of what they do if Wycombe fail to win at already relegated Torquay.

But a victory for Wycombe and defeat for the Cobblers will condemn Town to relegation and non-league football in the Conference, so the stakes still remain extremely high for Wilder's men despite the odds swinging in their favour.

"The job isn't finished, there is still another game to go and there is a lot of work still to be done," said the Northampton manager.

"We've got ourselves above the line and we are in a position now where it is in our own hands. That is very much down to a collective effort from everybody and we just need one more big push.

"There is an unbelievable unity about the club at the moment, right through from the staff to most importantly the supporters.

ONE LAST PUSH: Chris Wilder at Dagenham

"I'm sure it will be a sell out on Saturday and there will be a cracking atmosphere.

"We've got to make sure that we are bang up for it on Saturday and I'm one hundred per cent sure that we will be.

"We're not taking anything for granted, mad things happen in football and on the last day of the season and we know that we've still got a job to do.

"If we do our job on Saturday then the rest will take care of itself. We want to finish the season off on a high and the players are determined to do that."

Oxford are ideal opponents for the scriptwriters with the U's being the club that Wilder left for Sixfields in January, following the sacking of Aidy Boothroyd in December.

Wilder left with the Kassam Stadium outfit safely in the play-off positions but they have struggled since his departure, slipping out of promotion contention under new manager Gary Waddock.

Their poor run has seen them lose six out of the last seven games since Waddock's appointment but they could prove to be dangerous opponents with little to now play for on the final day.

Wilder, however, is keen to shrug off the link with his former club and simply concentrate on the job he has with Northampton.

"Saturday is not about me facing a former club, it is about getting the result we need," he said.

"We are not safe. We need a big effort on Saturday. We have always believed and still do.

"We have been under pressure for months but the whole club has handled it well. Last week means nothing if we don't finish the job."

Bristol Rovers will host mid-table Mansfield in their final fixture of the season.

SPORTS SHORTS

SAILING: Fine weather resulted in more than 40 boats taking to the water at Hollowell Sailing Club this weekend.

Mike Playle took the first race of the Saturday Spring Series on his sailboard, with Simon Bickers claiming race two.

Paul and Simon Deakin lead overall in their Laser 2000. On day six of the Sunday Spring Series, Simon Cray fought off strong competition in his laser to win race one, with Hazel McDonnell claiming race two in her Optimist. In race three the Playle Duo came out on top with Ian Clark just holding on to first place overall. All are welcome at the club's open day on May 10, from 11am.

TRAMPOLINING: Andrew Stamp started 2014 where he left off as he dominated the elite men's U13/U14 age group at the second Spring Series event in Bath.

The Northants Trampoline Gymnastics Academy youngster took fourth place at the World Championships in Bulgaria in November and showed no sign of slowing down his progress as he won the event by a massive nine marks.

ATHLETICS: Rugby & Northampton Athletic Club made a strong start to the new Youth Development League season by finishing second in 2014's opening meeting.

The club's U20 and U17 athletes kicked proceedings off at Birmingham's Alexander Stadium by leading the event until the half-way point before host club Birchfield Harriers took over to win by 40 points.

MOTORSPORT: Entries are flooding in for round one of the FIA European Drag Racing Championship, held over Spring Bank Holiday weekend, 23-26 May, at Santa Pod Raceway. Racers from 14 countries are already scheduled to compete and more than 250 teams are expected.

Comment: A season quite possibly saved in Dagenham

COBBLERS

Columnist and Cobblers fan Tom Reed gives his thoughts on Northampton's 3-0 win against Dagenham on Saturday. You can read more of his 'Gripped by the Cobblers' columns online at www.northampton-news-hp.co.uk/sport.

BY TOM REED
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

It was Shrewsbury mark two, or make that three. Northampton v Dagenham with the Cobblers likely down if they'd lost. The pubs at Liverpool Street heaved like the Town's Bridge Street on a Saturday night before the shoe army descended on Dagenham proper.

A flare was lit as the players took to the field, fans sheltering under its scarlet glow and visualising a way to down the Daggers.

A teenage dream's so hard to beat and so it proved as eighteen year-old Ivan Toney scored twice as the Cobblers claimed a crucial 3-0 win. Youth product Toney, who hadn't expected to start the match, scored an eighth minute diving header before getting his kicks with an over-head volley that will go down as one of the best in the club's recent history.

The smoke from the "pyro" had just about cleared the nostrils of the twelve hundred Northampton supporters when Toney headed an in-swinging Ian Morris cross past Jordan Seabright. Toney has a Will Smith hair-cut circa 1990 and his afro-assisted goal sent the travelling faithful bonkers. One fan ran out of the overspill terrace onto the pitch clenching both fists in delight that shot-shy Cobblers had actually scored.

Northampton hadn't notched for three straight matches (barring opposition goalkeeper errors) and the unusual experience of celebrating a well-worked goal was to continue as Ian Morris scored a stonker of his own to double the Cobblers' lead. Chris Hackett sent in a twelfth minute corner which was repelled high into the air by the Daggers before dropping onto Morris' left foot. The Irish midfielder hit a controlled, first time, up and under volley into the top right-hand corner of Seabright's net from twenty yards.

Despite having good technique, Morris has never been a fans' favourite but made amends for a poor start to the season in the best way possible. Yet it was Toney who had the real swagger, polishing off a storming first half for the Cobblers. On forty minutes Darren Carter whipped in a left footed corner which Seabright fumbled towards the penalty box and a waiting Toney teed himself up before smashing a bicycle kick into the bottom right corner of the Daggers' net.

Both Morris' and Toney's goals could have come from a school-yard game of "headers and volleys" and showed that time for free thought can be found in the most stressful situations. Each goal hung in the air as supporters craned their necks, their hearing strained for the ripple of the net.

By now the Northampton support were beside themselves with the conflicting emotions of a game won by half time: joy that the Cobblers had stuck three past their opponents but irritation at a long season gone awry.

An advertising hoarding in the Daggers' Bury Road End read "Utopia Travel" and the away support couldn't have dreamed of an easier route through the game. "You are my sunshine" they sang as a shoe was thrown onto the pitch, its owner hopping as his friends laughed and then a beach ball bounced twice off an oblivious steward's head.

The beach ball was apt given the performance of a mid-table Dagenham side who were not so much "on the beach" as sleeping off a fifteen course meat meze after a month long Cypriot holiday. Not that the Cobblers' fans cared as they cheered the final whistle.

A lone lad made a break from the away end to greet the winning side but was corralled by overzealous stewards, who tried to rip the shirt off his back. But like the Cobblers' league status, it hung on.

As the shoe army made their way back to Northampton, the fried chicken shops and nail bars of East London gave way to golden fields of oilseed rape and they had time to reflect on a long season, one almost ruined by Aidy Boothroyd but quite possibly, saved in Dagenham.

Chris Wilder's side are now three points outside the relegation zone needing a draw against Oxford on Saturday to guarantee their league status.

Northampton Town need just a point from their final game of the season to complete the great escape and ensure that their 94 year stay in the Football League continues.

Local boy Ivan Toney fired the Cobblers to the edge of survival with a deadly double in the 3-0 win at Dagenham & Redbridge – one of the most precious victories for the club in years.

The striker stepped up to the mark at the age of just 18 and made himself an instant hero in a match which saw him make only his second senior start for his home town club. His second goal – a stunning bicycle kick which made it 3-0 – will live long in the memory as Northampton climbed out of the League Two relegation zone for the first time since September.

It means that a draw will be enough when Oxford United visit Sixfields on Saturday but the Cobblers will be taking nothing for granted as their quest to avoid the Conference and non-league football goes to the final day.

Anything other than a win for Wycombe Wanderers at already relegated Torquay will also be enough for Town regardless of what they do, but the last day is always a nervy affair and the fact that it is boss Chris Wilder's former club Oxford visiting is sure to add extra spice to what promises to be a roller-coaster occasion.
